WOMAN IS CHOSEN GRAND PRESIDENT

By State Body for the First Time in History of the Protected Home Circle.

For the first time in the twenty-eight years' history of the Protected Home Circle a woman was elected grand president at Friday forenoon's session of the West Virginia Grand Circle, which has been holding its biennial convention in the Williams hall on Second street. She is Mrs. Alice Peterson, of McMechen, an unusually capable woman and one of the most energetic workers of the organization. The other new officers, all of whom will serve for two years, are as follows:

Grand past president—W. R. Baker, Wheeling.

Grand treasurer—E. C. Furlong, Zimmer, Wheeling.

Grand guardian—Mrs. Katherine Dagen, Fairmont.

Grand chaplain—Mrs. Addie Milligen, Fairmont.

Grand secretary—Miss Ada Ann Hennen, Benwood.

Grand treasurer—E. C. Furlong, Morgantown.

Grand guide—Grafton Clark, Wheeling.

Grand companion—Earl Shriver, Morgantown.

Grand sentinel—C. H. Logsdon, McMechen.

Grand watchman—Annos Yoder, Clarksburg.

Representative to the supreme circle—A. L. Demoss, Morgantown.

Alternate—A. S. Oliver, Wheeling.

Parkersburg was selected as the place for holding the next biennial meeting.

Business of the grand circle was practically finished with the election of officers Friday morning. In the afternoon the newly chosen officers were formally installed with Walter Whitehead, the supreme treasurer acting as supreme president; Frank Gilbert, the supreme guide acting in his official capacity; and E. M. Roberts, chairman of the supreme committee on laws acting as supreme secretary. These supreme officers, who came here especially for the meeting, gave interesting and instructive talks to the members of the grand circle at the closing session. They also made addresses at

Thursday night's session, at which a class of ten candidates received the banner degree, conferred by the ladies' degree teams of Fairmont and McMechen.

At a session to be held tonight, the new inner degree, which was created by the supreme circle at its biennial convention last year at Washington, D. C., will be conferred upon all delegates and grand circle officers who have not already received it. This degree is for all past presidents and all members who have obtained five or more new members. Afterward a banquet will be held.

REFUSAL

To Treat with the Strikers Causes Them to Go on a Big Parade.

PITTSBURG, June 13.—Refusal of the Westinghouse Company to treat with the striking workers was met by the statement of the Allegheny Congenial Industrial Union that it would call out the employees of the Union Switch and Signal Company, another Westinghouse corporation. The strike was scheduled for noon and a parade of 5,000 strikers with five bands left East Pittsburgh for Swisshaven at 9 o'clock.

FEDERAL TROOPS

Are Fortifying in San Francisco, a Town Only 20 Miles from Vera Cruz.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
VERA CRUZ, June 13.—General Navarrete in command of a force of federal troops between Vera Cruz and Mexico City is reported to be fortifying the town of San Francisco, some twenty miles from Vera Cruz, on the railway. The report, which first came from the capital, was substantiated by reports to the American army headquarters here. General Navarrete, it is understood, has about 2,000 men at San Francisco.

FLEMINGTON

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
FLEMINGTON, June 13.—Miss Ada Springer has returned home from Salem College. She was a member of the graduating class.

Miss Hattie Winter was tendered a very delightful surprise party at her home recently, the affair being in honor of her birthday. A large crowd attended.

Mrs. B. J. Cather went to Salem Wednesday to attend the commencement exercises of Salem College, of which her daughter, Miss Bertha, is a student.

Mrs. J. H. Springer attended the commencement exercises at Salem College this week. Her daughters, Misses Ada and Oma were graduates.

Miss Nellie Pinnell, of Clarksburg, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Victor Menear.

Mrs. Carl Chenoweth, of Grafton, is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Springer, for a few days.

Mrs. Parker Selby, of Grafton, visited relatives here a few days ago.

The Flemington high school closed Wednesday after a very successful term taught by S. C. Grose, H. O. East and Miss Phyllis Perine. The Rev. Mr. Mossburn, of the Methodist Protestant church, preached the sermon to the graduating class. Monday night the Loyal Literary Society gave a very interesting program, and on Tuesday night the Independent Literary Society gave its program, which was very good. Prof. Marsh, of Charleston, delivered the lecture to the graduating class, which consisted of Miss Hattie May Smith, Miss Mona Batson, Sheridan Frum and Harland Kelley.

FOUR WOMEN

Said to Be of Immoral Character Are Sent Out of the City by Chief Brooks.

Four women, alleged to be of immoral character, were sent out of the city Friday by Chief of Police Harry L. Brooks. They gave their names as Anna Long, Rose Smith, Ethel Ross and Edith Smith. They were escorted to the station by an officer, who saw that they boarded a train for Akron, O., where they said they were going to work.

The long woman came to police headquarters this morning and said the Ross woman had borrowed a ring from her and refused to return it. To corroborate her, she brought along the two Smith women. The Ross woman was brought in, the ring was restored to its owner and all four were given their passports.

HEART DISEASE

Causes Death of James Joyce, a Well Known Resident of the East End.

James Joyce, aged 40 years, a well known resident of the East End, died at 5 o'clock Friday morning at his home on Pacific street after a lingering illness of heart disease.

The deceased man is survived by two brothers and three sisters. The brothers are Michael and John Joyce, both residents of the East End. The sisters are Mrs. Ellen Lyden, of Jackson street; Mrs. John Radigan, who resides in Ohio, and Miss Mary Joyce, who lives at home.

The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the church of the Immaculate Conception. The Rev. P. H. Maternmott, rector of the church will celebrate a requiem high mass. The burial will be in the Holy Cross cemetery.

PENSION MATTERS.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—Congressman Neely has taken up with the pension bureau the matter of granting original pensions to J. Davis of Wheeling, and Frank D. Sapp, of Weston; and of granting an increase to Timothy B. Baker, of Woodland, for all of which applications have been filed by Congressman Neely.

JURY HAS CASE.

At the Telegram's press hour Friday afternoon a circuit court jury had the Clarksburg and Weston Electric Railway Company's condemnation case against W. Brent Maxwell, which had been on trial several days.

UNFAVORABLE REPORT.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 13.—The postoffice department has reported unfavorably on the application of Congressman Brown for a change in rural route No. 2 out of St. George, Tucker county. The service on this route is three times a week now and daily service was desired, but the department felt that it was not warranted by the business on the route.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted on my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.
